FQHC/RHC supplemental (wraparound) manual payment requests end for managed care claims

The Office of Medicaid Policy and Planning (OMPP) announced the end to the federally qualified healthcare center (FQHC) and rural health clinic (RHC) manual supplemental payment request process for managed care claims in Indiana Health Coverage Programs (IHCP) Bulletin BT202144 and BT202187.

As anticipated with the automation of the supplemental payments for the FQHCs and RHCs, Myers and Stauffer will no longer be accepting manual supplemental payment requests for managed care claims from FQHCs or RHCs, effective Feb. 28, 2022. Any outstanding manual supplemental payment requests must be submitted to Myers and Stauffer on or before Feb. 28, 2022. Forms submitted after this date will be rejected; however, the managed care claims will be included in the calendar year 2021 year-end reconciliation.
