FSSA announces extension of the Family Supports Waiver

The Indiana Family and Social Services Administration (FSSA) has received an extension of the current Family Supports Waiver (FSW) through June 30, 2015, from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS). The additional 90 days was granted to allow time for CMS to further review the renewal application submitted by FSSA in December of 2014.

The extension will allow services to continue uninterrupted beyond the original expiration date of March 31, 2015. During the extended time frame, the FSW program will continue to operate under existing policies and procedures. Questions about the extension can be emailed to
